

We will mock you.

It's one of humanity's less attractive traits to take the piss anytime something a little unfamiliar or disturbing comes up.

We will mock you, mock you, mock you;
We will mock you aw the way.
We will mock you, mock you, mock you;
Mockery's what maist folk dae.

If ye hae an inclination
Tae the pleasures o the mind,
We will take such recreation
As an insult tae oor kind,
An we will mock you...etc.

If ye say that peace an kindness
Are the key tae livin weel,
We'll uphold brute force an blindness,
We'll aye vote for bluid an steel,
An we will mock you...etc.

If yer dreams drive or disturb ye,
Visions o the inner ee;
We will dae oor best tae curb ye.
We want nane o what you see.
An we will mock you...etc.

Sae turn yer back on search an seekin,
Let yer daft delusions dee.
Turn yer tongue tae blunt plain speakin;
Doon tae earth's the wey tae be!
Or we will mock you...etc.
