

Wait a meenit!

Is Scotland really the only country in the world incapable of running itself?

I read in the paper I shouldnae forget being pairt o Great Britain is Scotland's best bet.
But here, wait a meenit, that cannae be true!
I dinnae believe it, and neither should you!

I heard on the radio somebody tell hoo Scotland's ower wee tae make progress hersel.
But here, wait a meenit, that cannae be true!
I dinnae believe it, and neither should you!

On the telly I heard some politico say that Scotland wuid flounder ootside the UK.
But here, wait a meenit, that cannae be true!
I dinnae believe it, and neither should you!

Sma nations worldwide can aw prosper wi ease,
yet they tell us that we wuid be suin on oor knees.
But here, wait a meenit, that cannae be true!
I dinnae believe it, and neither should you!

Sae when ye next hear some daft unionist speak,
sayin Scotland's ower stupit, ower wee, and ower weak,
juist say, "Wait a meenit, that cannae be true!"
I dinnae believe it, and neither should you!"
